Parents of students or other concerned individuals may contact Ms. Johnson to make inquiries or complaints regarding the School’s policy against discrimination, including if they suspect that the School has engaged in disability discrimination in admissions and enrollment.

In addition, if an individual believes that he or she, or his or her child, has been discriminated against by the School on the basis of disability, that individual may contact the U.S. Department of Education for Civil Rights (“OCR”). OCR is a federal agency responsible for enforcing numerous federal civil rights laws that prohibit discrimination in programs or activities that receive federal financial assistance from the Department of Education, including public schools. The contact information for OCR’s headquarters (in Washington, D.C.) and its Denver Office (the office that serves Utah) is as follows:
